Planning for your Session

It is important to choose clothing that will complement the style of portrait you are planning.

Clothing Decisions

Solid colors are extremely important. Solid colors draw the attention to the focal point of your portrait, your face, rather than causing distraction with busy patterns, stripes, and bright colors. Color coordination lends harmony. While all clothing does not have to match, the colors should be harmonious, so that one person will not dominate the scene. Long sleeves are best for adults and older children.

Making Sure Everyone's Comfortable...

Please feel free to bring favorite playthings for the children including, stuffed animals, books or even ride-on toys! They make for great additions to the pictures and help everyone relax. Adults, just come ready to be yourselves. I want to see your smile, to capture your relationships, and catch those special moments that come when we let go and forget we are in front of a camera.
